Nebraska Logistics Council awards Scholarships

(Omaha, Neb.) The Nebraska Logistics Council awarded three $500 scholarships at their annual fundraiser, August 24, 2018

Recipients were:

Jarrett Klein, a senior at Millard West High School and is enrolled in the Business Logistics Management Academy. His goals include obtaining a degree in Logistics and Business Management at the University of Nebraska. He is completing a summer internship with Werner Enterprises and his volunteer work includes the Food Bank for Millard Horizon High School, Bow Hunters of Nebraska and Heartland Equine Therapeutic Riding Academy. He is the son of Michelle and Keith Klein.

Lauren Kohl, a 2018 graduate of Millard North High School and attended the Millard Business and Logistics Career Academy. Her goals include attending the University of Nebraska – Omaha in Supply Chain Management and Entrepreneurship. She has received her certified logistics technician and certified logistics associate from the Manufacturing Standard Skills Council Organization. She is employed with Sketchers and Legacy Homes and has volunteered with Heartland Hope. She is the daughter of Christine and Brian Kohl.

Cameron Isenberger, a 2018 graduate of Millard South High School and attended the Millard Business and Logistics Management Career Academy. His goals include attending the University of Nebraska – Kearney with Supply Chain Management and Management Information Systems as programs of study. He has received his certified logistics technician and certified logistics associate from the Manufacturing Standard Skills Council Organization. Cameron currently works for Complete Call Solutions and has volunteered at Special Olympics District Track Meet and Special Friends' Prom. He is the son of Steph and Jeff Isenberger.

Lyle Jaixsen of C Life Sciences and President of the Nebraska Logistics Council presented the checks. 'On behalf of our Board of Directors, members and staff, it is my pleasure to present these scholarships to three outstanding students,' said Jaixsen. 'Through the generosity of our attendees today we continue to assist students interested in one of Nebraska's best and growing industries – supply chain management. We wish each of them much success in their educational endeavors.'

The Nebraska Logistics Council's mission is to give members new ideas and opportunities to grow in the logistics field. Members can network and exchange ideas, striving to help logistics professionals excel in their positions. The Nebraska Trucking Association is the provider of effective information, services and advocacy to Nebraska trucking companies and affiliated businesses.
